

The Masters of Reggaeton, Wisin & Yandel are coming to Aruba!

The dynamic duo of Juan Luis Morera and Llandel Veguilla Malavé, better known as Wisin and Yandel will appear live in Aruba on Saturday November 25 at the Don Elias Mansur Ballpark. Concert sponsors Coca-Cola, Balashi Beer, Score, De Palm Tours, Tiara Air and Azucar Discotheque proudly join with Miniteca Exide and Orange Productions in bringing what is considered one of the top Reggaeton groups in the Caribbean to the island.

Wisin & Yandel have been a dominant force in the reggaeton genre recording industry since 1998, when they first performed for DJ Dicky's No Fear 3 under the Fresh Production label. In 1999, they signed with Fresh productions and appeared in La Misión, Vol. 1, which reached gold status. The reception was so positive that the label produced their first solo album in 2000 titled Los Reyes del Nuevo Milenio. ("Kings of the New Millennium")

Wisin & Yandel are based out of Puerto Rico, and enjoy a wide-ranging fan base. In 2005, they established their own record label, WY Records (Doble U-Y Records). They are known throughout Puerto Rico as El Duo Dinámico or El Duo De La Historia; ("The Dynamic Duo.") They were nominated for five Latin Grammy awards, and their albums have gone platinum on the Latin Charts.

This concert in Aruba nearly coincides with the premier of their latest album on November 7, 2006, titled "Los Vaqueros." This is a compilation album featuring Wisin & Yandel and some of the top artists signed to their record label WY Records; Tony Dize, Franco "El Gorilla," Gadiel, and El Tio.

The concert will also feature Aruba's three top reggaeton bands as opening acts plus Basic One, The Party Squad NL, and top island DJ's. Pre-concert tickets are available at the special discounted price of forty-five Aruban florins until November 20 at Score, Lucky Stores, Azucar Discotheque, Win Me store, Keke and GeeKay Department Store.
